Board of Directors Charter

TOTALENERGIES MARKETING KENYA PLC

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' CHARTER

A. INTRODUCTION

1. TotalEnergies Marketing Kenya PLC (the "Company") is a Public Limited Company incorporated in the Republic of Kenya under the Companies Act and listed on the Nairobi Securities Exchange.
2. The Company is run through the direction of the Board of Directors, which is responsible for Corporate Governance. The Board of Directors of TotalEnergies Marketing Kenya PLC (the "Board") is committed to the highest level of Corporate Governance which we consider critical to business integrity and to maintaining investors' trust in the Company.
3. The core Corporate Governance guidelines and regulations applying to the Company are the Code of Corporate Governance Practices for Issuers of Securities to the Public, 2015 (the "Corporate Governance Code"), the Capital Markets (Licensing Requirements)(General)(Amendment) Regulations, 2016 (the "Corporate Governance Regulations") as issued by the Capital Markets Authority and international best practice.
4. The Board has developed this Board Charter (the "Board Charter") in order to document its Corporate Governance practices and principles, in recognition of the role of good governance in corporate performance, maximization of shareholder value and protection of investors' rights, and also to promote the Company's standards of self-regulation.
5. The Board Charter is not intended to replace or amend the Memorandum & Articles of Association of the Company in any way. In the event of a conflict between the Memorandum & Articles of Association and the Charter, the provisions of the Memorandum & Articles of Association shall have preference. Any amendment(s) to the Company's Memorandum & Articles of Association especially on governance components will instigate a review of the Charter to ensure legal compliance and policy conformity. The Board Charter is also not intended to contain a comprehensive summary of the applicable legal principles. Board Members requiring advice in respect of any matter referred to in this charter are welcome to contact the Company Secretary.
6. Corporate Governance, for the purpose of this Board Charter, is defined as the process and structure used to direct and manage business affairs of the Company towards enhancing prosperity and corporate accounting with the ultimate objective of realizing shareholders' long-term value while taking into account the interest of other stakeholders.
7. This Board Charter was initially approved on 26 October 2016. Any amendment to this Board Charter requires approval of the Board.

B. BOARD COMPOSITION

1. The Board shall establish clear roles and responsibilities in discharging its fiduciary and leadership functions. Directors have a fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of the Company as a whole. In exercising fiduciary duties, each Board Member:

Board of Directors Charter

- (a) Must exercise reasonable degree of care, skill and diligence;
 - (b) Must act in the best interest of the Company and not for any other purpose;
 - (c) Must act honestly at all times and must not place themselves in a situation where personal interest conflict with those of the Company;
 - (d) Must at all times exercise independent judgment;
 - (e) Must devote sufficient time to carry out their responsibilities and enhance their skills;
 - (f) Shall promote and protect the image of the Company;
 - (g) Must owe their duty to the Company and not to the nominating authority; and
 - (h) Must owe the Company a duty to hold in confidence all information available to them by virtue of their position as a Board Member.
2. The Board shall comprise a balance of Independent, Executive and Non-Executive Directors, with diverse skills, experience, independence and knowledge sufficient to enable the Board to discharge effectively its responsibilities for governance of the Company. The Independent Non-Executive Directors shall form at least one third of the total number of Board Members. The Board shall have policies and procedures in place to ensure independence of its Members. Executive Members of the Board shall manage the conflict that arises between their management role and their role in the Board.
 3. The process of the appointment of Directors shall be sensitive to gender representation and should not be perceived to represent single or narrow interest. . At least one-third of the Board members shall represent one gender.
 4. The Board shall have Executive Directors who understand every single risk and/or product associated with the Company and shall have knowledge of the manner in which the Company's longer term strategy is pursued in practice and have an ability to influence its policies; and effectively direct the business of the Company.

 7. There shall be a limit to the number of Directorships a Member of the Board holds at any given time. A Director shall not hold such position in more than three public listed companies within the East African Community Partner States at any one time. This is to ensure effective participation by such Directors in the Board.
 8. In case where the Corporate Director has appointed an alternate Director, the appointment of such alternate Director shall be restricted to two public listed companies within the East African Community Partner States at any one time.
 9. An Executive Director of a Listed Company shall be restricted to one other Directorship of another Listed Company within the East African Community Partner States.
 10. A Chairperson of a Public Listed Company shall not hold such position in more than two listed companies within the East African Community Partner States at any one time, in order to allow the Chairperson in devote sufficient time to steering the Board.

Board of Directors Charter

11. The age limit for Members of the Board shall be seventy years. In exceptional cases, Members, at the Annual General Meeting, may vote to retain a Board Member who is over seventy years.
12. The term of office of the Board Members shall be organized to ensure smooth transition. The term of office should end at different times. This ensures retention of institutional memory and makes induction of new Board Members easier.
13. The Board shall be constituted to ensure effectiveness and value addition to the Company. The Board and its Committees shall have appropriate balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge of the Company and its business, to enable them discharge their respective duties and responsibilities effectively. The Board shall be structured in a way that it has different skills and expertise within itself.
14. The Board shall be structured in such a way that;
 - (a) It has a proper understanding of, and competence to deal with, the current and emerging issues of the business;
 - (b) It exercises independent judgment;
 - (c) It encourages enhanced performance of the Company; and
 - (d) It can effectively review and challenge the performance of Management.
15. Formal letters of appointment, indicating the key terms and conditions are given to Members of the Board to ensure they understand the organization's expectations of them in terms of allocation of individual responsibilities.
16. In the course of seeking accurate information in order to discharge its duties and responsibilities properly, the Board shall seek legal, financial, governance or any other expert advice necessary. The Board shall be entitled to seek external advice at the Company's expense through an agreed procedure.

C. APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

1. Board appointment procedures shall be transparent, clearly documented and approved by the Board before use. The procedures shall be formal and a matter for the Board as a whole, assisted by the Nomination Committee.
2. Shareholders are ultimately responsible for appointments to the Board and it is in their best interest to ensure that the Board is properly constituted. Information relating to those nominated for Board positions should be availed to shareholders in advance of any decision making. As the information is disseminated, the Company should ensure the use of a wide variety of communication channels to cater for shareholders' diverse media consumption habits.
3. To the extent that the duty is vested in General Meetings, the shareholders should ensure that only credible persons who can add value to the Company's business are elected to the Board of Directors.
4. The appointment process should be well managed to ensure that a balanced mix of proficient individuals is attained and that each of those appointed is able to add value and bring independent judgment to bear in the decision making.

Board of Directors Charter

5. All persons offering themselves for appointment as Board Members shall disclose any potential areas of conflict that may undermine their position or service as Director.

D. BOARD STRUCTURE

- (f) the need to act fairly as between the Directors and the Members of the Company.

3. Duty to exercise independent judgment

A Director of a Company shall exercise independent judgment. The duty is not infringed by the Director acting;

- In accordance with an agreement duly entered into by the Company that restricts the future exercise of discretion by its Directors; or
- In a way authorized by the constitution of the Company.

Board of Directors Charter

4. Duty to exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence

In performing the functions of a Director, a Director of a Company shall exercise the same care, skill and diligence that would be exercisable by a reasonably diligent person with:

- The general knowledge, skill and experience that may reasonably be expected of a person carrying out the functions performed by the Director in relation to the Company; and
- The general knowledge, skill and experience that the Director has.

5. Duty to avoid conflict of interest

A Director must avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company.

6. Duty not to accept benefits from third parties

Directors should ensure that they do not receive any benefits not provided for, or allowed, under the constitution of the Company. The only exceptions will be benefits that are so minor that they could not be thought to influence the Director in any way.

7. Duty to declare interest in proposed or existing transactions/arrangement

A Director shall disclose the extent of his/her interest, whether directly or indirectly, in existing or proposed transaction/arrangement.

In case a Director is not physically present during Board Meetings, he/she shall declare his/her conflict of interests, if any, via email or virtually or by teleconference.

8. Duty to convene a Meeting on loss of a capital

If the net assets of a Public Company are half or less of its called-up share capital, the Directors shall convene a General Meeting of the Company to consider how to deal with the situation.

9. Duty to prepare Financial Statement

Directors of every Company shall prepare a financial statement for the Company in each financial year.

10. Duty to prepare Director's Report

The Directors shall prepare Director's Report for each financial year. The Directors shall also prepare a group financial statement and a report to that effect. The report shall contain:

- Names of all Directors.
- Principle activities of the Company during the course of the year.
- The amount (if any) that the Directors recommend to be paid as dividends to shareholders.
- Other information required to be disclosed by the Companies Act and Regulations.

Board of Directors Charter

11. Duty to prepare Directors' Remuneration Report

Directors of a quoted Company shall prepare a Directors' Remuneration Report for each financial year.

All Directors are equally accountable for the proper stewardship of the Company's affairs.

A Director who ceases to hold such office continues to be subject to the duty to avoid conflict of interest with regard to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity that the person became aware of while a Director, and not to accept benefits from third parties with regard to things done or omitted to be done by that person before ceasing to be a Director.

F. RIGHTS OF DIRECTORS

1. The terms of appointment of a Non-Executive Director shall be set out in an engagement letter or contract between the Company and the Director.
2. Each Director shall undergo an induction program on appointment. The Chairperson shall review and agree with each Director on specific training and development requirements.
3. In the event that any concern expressed by a Director during a Board Meeting cannot be resolved, he may require that his concern is recorded by the Company Secretary in the minutes of the Meeting.
4. In the event that a Director resigns from the Board, he may demand that the Chairperson or the Company Secretary circulates to all other Directors a written statement of the resigning Director detailing the reasons for his resignation.

G. THE FUNCTIONS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE BOARD

The Board has a primary responsibility of fostering the long-term business of the Company consistent with the Directors' fiduciary duties. Each Director shall accord sufficient time to his role and act consistently on a fully informed basis in accordance with his fiduciary duties. In order to carry out their responsibility for stewardship within their duty of care, the Directors shall, directly or through one or more Committees:

1. Define the strategic direction of the Company through the Company's mission, vision, its strategy, goals, risk policy plans and objectives, including approval of its Annual Budgets.
2. Identify the corporate business opportunities as well as principal risks in its operating environment, including the implementation of appropriate measures to manage such risks or anticipated changes impacting on the corporate business.
3. The Board shall establish an effective Risk Management Framework for the Company to identify the principal risks of the Company's business, where identifiable, and manage such risks.

12. Monitor the performance of the Managing Director.
13. The Board shall establish relevant Committees with written terms of reference, which set out their authority and duties. The Board shall also review the mandate of the Committees periodically to ensure that they remain relevant
14. The Board shall continually work towards the introduction of integrated reporting. Integrated reporting is a process that brings together the material information about an organization's strategy, governance, performance and prospects in such a way that reflects its commercial, social and environmental context within which it operates.
15. Satisfy itself as to the integrity of the Managing Director and other Executive Officers and ensure that the Managing Director and the other Executive Officers create a culture of integrity throughout the Company.
16. Approve the Company's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct. The Code of Ethics and Conduct shall include appropriate communication and feedback mechanisms which facilitate whistle-blowing. The Board shall periodically review its Code of Ethics and Conduct. Besides, a summary of this code shall be made available on the Company's Website.
17. The Board shall establish, periodically review and make public its Board Charter. The Charter shall be made public by being published on the Company's Website.
18. The Board shall ensure that the Company's strategies promote the sustainability of the Company. Attention shall be given to Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) aspects of the business which underpin sustainability.
19. The Board shall put in place a Policy on Related Party Transactions. All Related Party Transactions shall meet the requirements of the law and be approved by the Board before being executed. The Board shall put in place a Policy to manage Conflict of Interest.
20. The Board shall ensure that the Company has appropriate corporate disclosure policies and procedures. They should be practical and include feedback from stakeholders.
21. The Board shall put in place a structure of review and authorization designed to ensure the truthful and factual presentation of the Company's financial position. The Board shall take full responsibility for the accuracy of the financial statements.
22. The Board shall ensure that activities leading to good corporate citizenship are well coordinated.
23. The Board shall establish an Internal Audit Function, whether internally based or externally sourced and identify a Head of Internal Audit who reports directly to the Audit Committee.
24. The Board shall disclose the Company's Policy on Corporate Social Responsibility and investment. It shall also disclose the Company's Policy on Conflict of Interest.
25. The Board shall ensure that the Company discloses its Environmental, Social and Governance Policies and implementation thereof in its Annual Report and Website.
26. The Board shall ensure that an independent Legal and Compliance Audit is undertaken

Board of Directors Charter

once every 2 years by a Legal Professional in good standing with the Law Society of Kenya in line with the CMA Code of Corporate Governance Practices for Issuers of Securities to the Public 2015.

27. The Board shall ensure that a Governance Audit is carried out to confirm the Company is operating on sound governance practices and after undergoing the Governance Audit, the Board shall provide an explicit statement on the level of compliance in line with the CMA Code of Corporate Governance Practices for Issuers of Securities' to the Public 2015.
28. The Board shall recognize, respect and protect the rights of shareholders and ensure that all shareholders are treated equitably. Companies shall employ modern communication techniques to communicate with shareholders.
29. The Board shall establish and put into effect a Whistle Blowing Policy for the Company.
30. The Board shall establish and approve formal and transparent remuneration policies and procedures that attract and retain Board Members.
31. The Board shall take full responsibility for the accuracy of the financial statements. The Board shall explain in its Annual Report its responsibility for preparing the Annual Report and Accounts, and there shall be a statement by the External Auditor about their reporting responsibilities.
32. The Board shall take into account the interests of all key stakeholder groups before making its decisions.
33. The Board shall establish a formal process to resolve both internal and external disputes.
34. The Board shall set standards of ethical behavior required of its Members, Senior Executives and all employees and ensure observance of those standards.
35. The Board shall recommend to its shareholders in an Annual General Meeting the rotation of Auditors in order to improve their independence, objectivity and professional critique.

H. BOARD MEETINGS

1. Proceedings of Board Meetings

- i) The Board may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its Meetings as it thinks fit. The Secretary, on the instructions of the Chairperson or on the requisition of a Director, shall at any time summon a Board Meeting. At least five (5) days' notice (inclusive of the date of service and the date of the Meeting) of all Board Meetings shall, unless waived by all Directors, be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to all Directors and Alternates.
- ii) The quorum for Directors' Meeting may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Directors, and unless so fixed shall when the number of Directors exceeds 6 be 4 and when the number of Directors does not exceed 6 be 3.

2. Attendance at Board Meetings

- i) Where a Board Member is unable to be physically present at any Board or General Meeting, the Board may make provisions for electronic participation by electronic means or other communication facilities that permits all participants to communicate adequately during the Meeting, allows for simultaneous communication and is capable of being recorded.
- ii) A Board Member wishing to attend a Meeting via electronic means shall notify the Board of Directors reasonably in advance of the Board Meeting.

Board of Directors Charter

- iii) A Board Member shall be deemed to be present at any Board or Committee Meeting if he is able to hear and understand the proceedings of the Meeting and be heard by all present by way of a telephone or other suitable means of communication and such Director indicates his willingness for the Meeting to proceed on that basis.
- iv) A resolution passed at any Meeting held by electronic communication shall be valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a Meeting at which all Directors are physically present.
- v) A Director or his/her Alternate shall be required to attend at least 75 per cent of the scheduled Meetings of the Board, Board Committees and General Meetings either physically or by electronic means.

I. OUTSIDE INTERESTS, DISCLOSURES AND CONFLICTS

1. On appointment to the Board and on an annual basis thereafter, each Non-Executive Director is required to disclose to the Chairperson and the Company Secretary:-
 - any significant commitment which he has and which may impede his ability to devote appropriate time to his role as Director of the Company;
 - details of any other Company of which he is a Director;
 - details of any actual or potential conflict of interests which he is aware of; and
 - details of any interests in shares or securities in the Company or any of its subsidiaries which he may have.
2. Each Director is required to disclose to the Chairperson and the Company Secretary, as appropriate, any matter which may give rise to a potential or actual conflict with the interests of the Company as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the matter. In case a Director is not physically present during Board Meetings, he/she shall declare his/her conflict of interests, if any, via email or virtually or by teleconference. The Board authorizes the Chairperson and the Company Secretary to receive such disclosures on behalf of the Board and to make recommendations to the Board as to how to address the relevant matter, including whether it should be authorized by the Board or whether the Director making the disclosure should refrain from participating in discussions or voting on the relevant matter.
3. Each Director is required to be familiar with the Company's Code of Business Conduct and associated policies and standards, as they are relevant to his role. In particular, each Director will comply with the provisions relating to anti-bribery and corruption (as set out in the Company's Anti-Money Laundering and Bribery and Anti-corruption Policies) and to insider dealing (as set out in the Company's Code of Conduct on Securities Dealings).
4. Directors shall maintain the highest standards of confidentiality of information obtained during the course of service to the Company. This includes ensuring that confidential information regarding customers, employees, suppliers, and security operations is communicated on a "need to know" basis only and is used solely for the Company's purposes and not as a basis for making a profit or furthering a private interest.

Board of Directors Charter

J. BOARD PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

The Board shall determine its performance criteria and undertake an Annual Evaluation of its performance. The Board evaluation provides an opportunity for the Directors to identify strengths, collective skill gaps and individual areas of improvement. The evaluation shall cover the performance of the Board as a whole, its Committees, individual Members, the Chairperson, the Managing Director and the Company Secretary. The Board shall determine and agree on its Annual Evaluation toolkit.

K. BOARD TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

1. The Board shall periodically carry out a competence needs assessment to establish the lacking skill sets among its Board Members and put in place a development plan, for a minimum of twelve hours per Board Member per year, to address the identified gaps.
2. All Directors are encouraged to attend periodic training to ensure that they are kept up to date on relevant legal developments or changes in best practice and changing commercial or other risks. The Board may, from time to time, hold educational seminars to be conducted by internal or external Consultants. Directors' continuing education may also be in the form of presentations or briefings on particular topics or availing of educational materials.
3. The Board shall also receive regular briefings from the Managing Director on matters relevant to the business of the Company and changes in laws and regulations.

L. TENURE AND INDEPENDENCE OF AN INDEPENDENT BOARD MEMBER

The Board shall determine who the Independent Members are on an annual basis. The tenure of an Independent Board Member shall not exceed a cumulative term of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an Independent Board Member may continue to serve on the Board subject to re-designation as a Non-Independent Member. Independent Board Members bring independent and objective judgment to the Board and this mitigates risks arising from conflict of interest or undue influence from interested parties.

An Independent Board Member is one who:-

1. has not been employed by the Company in an executive capacity within the last three years;
2. is not associated with an Adviser or Consultant to the Company or a Member of the Company's Senior Management or a significant customer or supplier of the Company or with a not-for-profit entity that receives significant contributions from the Company; or within the last three years, has not had any business relationship with the Company (other than service as a Director) for which the Company has been required to make disclosure;
3. has no personal service contract with the Company, or a Member of the Company's Senior Management;
4. is not employed by a Public Listed Company at which an Executive Officer of the Company serves as a Director;
5. is not a Member of the immediate family of any person described above, or has not had any of the relationships described above with any affiliate of the Company;
6. is not a representative of a shareholder who has the ability to control or significantly influence Management;

Board of Directors Charter

7. is free from any business or other relationship which could be seen to interfere materially with the individual's capacity to act in an independent manner;
8. does not have a direct or indirect interest in the Company (including any parent or subsidiary in a consolidated group with the Company) which is either material to the Director or to the Company. A holding of five per cent or more is considered material;
9. does not hold cross-Directorships or significant links with other Directors through involvement in other companies or bodies; and
10. has not served for more than nine years since they were first elected.

M. TERMINATION OF DIRECTORS' APPOINTMENT

1. A person ceases to be a Director if the person: -
 - a) ceases to be a Director under the Act or the Insolvency Act, 2015, or is prohibited from being a Director by law;
 - b) becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with the person's creditors generally;
 - c) becomes a mentally disordered person;
 - d) resigns the office of Director by notice of the resignation;
 - e) he/she or his/her alternate for more than 6 months has been absent without the Directors' permission from Directors' Meetings held during that period; or
 - f) is removed from the office of Director by an ordinary resolution passed in accordance with section 139 of the Act (Resolutions to remove Directors from office).
2. If a notice of the resignation of a Director of the Company is required to be given in accordance with any agreement with the Company, the resignation does not have effect unless the Director gives notice of the resignation: -
 - a) in accordance with the requirement;
 - b) by leaving it at the registered office of the Company; or
 - c) by sending it to the Company in hard copy form or in electronic form.

N. BOARD SUCCESSION PLANNING

The Nomination Committee shall ensure that a succession plan is in place for Directors who are due for retirement.

However, at every Annual General Meeting of the Company, one third of the Non-Executive Directors or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to, but not exceeding one third shall retire from office. The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless otherwise agreed amongst themselves) be determined by lot, provided that no Director shall serve for a cumulative period of more than six (6) years.

O. BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board shall establish relevant Board Committees and delegate specific mandates to such Committees as appropriate. There shall be three standing Board Committees whose terms of reference shall be set forth. These Committees shall meet in accordance with their respective terms of reference:-

Board of Directors Charter

- Board Audit Committee
- Board Risk and Governance Committee
- Board Nomination and Remuneration Committee

P. CHAIRPERSON AND MANAGING DIRECTOR

1. The Board shall establish clear functions reserved for the Board and those to be delegated to the Management. The functions of the Chairperson and the Managing Director shall not be vested in the same person.
2. The responsibilities of the Chairperson shall include leading the Board in oversight of Management. The Chairperson of the Company shall be a Non-Executive Board Member.
3. The Managing Director focuses on the day-to-day management of the Company. He or she is responsible for implementing the Board's corporate decisions.
4. The Managing Director represents the Company in its relationships with third parties and also chairs the Management Committee.
5. It is the responsibility of the Chairperson and the Managing Director in liaison with the Company Secretary to work closely together in planning the annual program and agenda for Meetings of the Board which are held at least quarterly.

Q. ROLE AND AUTHORITY OF THE CHAIRPERSON

1. The Chairperson represents the Board of Directors and, except under exceptional circumstances, has sole authority to act and speak on behalf of the Board of Directors.
2. The Chairperson organizes and oversees the work of the Board of Directors and ensures that the Company's corporate bodies operate effectively and in compliance with good governance principles.
3. The Chairperson coordinates the work of the Board of Directors and its Committees.
4. The Chairperson establishes the agenda for each Board Meeting, including items suggested by the Managing Director.
5. The Chairperson ensures that Directors receive, in a timely manner and in a clear and appropriate format, the information they need to effectively carry out their duties.
6. In liaison with the Company's General Management, the Chairperson is responsible for maintaining relations between the Board of Directors and the Company's shareholders.
7. The Chairperson monitors the quality of information disclosed by the Company.
8. In close cooperation with the Company's General Management, the Chairperson may represent the Company in high-level discussions with government authorities and major partners.
9. The Chairperson is regularly informed by the Managing Director of significant events and situations relating to the Company, particularly with regard to strategy, organization, monthly financial reporting, major investment and divestment projects and key financial transactions.
10. The Chairperson may ask the Managing Director or other Senior Executives of the Company, provided that the Managing Director is informed, to supply any information that may help the Board or its Committees to carry out their duties.
11. The Chairperson may meet with the Statutory Auditors in order to prepare the work of the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee.

Board of Directors Charter

12. Every year, the Chairperson presents a Report to the Annual Shareholders' Meeting describing the preparation and organization of the Board of Directors' work, any limits set by the Board of Directors concerning the powers of the Managing Director, and the internal control procedures implemented by the Company. To this end, the Chairperson obtains the necessary information from the Managing Director.

R. ROLE AND AUTHORITY OF THE MANAGING DIRECTOR

The Managing Director is responsible for presenting the Company's results and prospects to shareholders and the financial community on a regular basis. At each Meeting of the Board of Directors, the Managing Director presents an overview of significant Company events.
